Anything that we get from public Internet sources can be used for instruction without any permission

Material in PowerPoint must not be from propriety sources

Anthologies can be used if we get permission from copyright owners

Suggest to using the anthologies created by filmclipsonline.com

PowerPoint presentations downloaded from the web

Videotape anthologies

COPYRIGHT FOR EDUCATORS

Posting copy righted material on the Internet

Images, video and music in multimedia project

Can be posted if the material is for instruction but it is not allowed to post as archival material

Make sure all copyrighted materials is removed from non-password protected areas on the district website

Can be used in student multimedia work without permission but it must followed the guidelines

Must used music or images from a licensed collection