Personal Qualities: I am easygoing person, determined, creative and also good in decision making. I am also good at interacting with people and a fast learner too. I am computer literate and willing to learn and gain new knowledge.

Preferred Work Style: I've worked solo, and as a team member. I can work in both environments with no particular preference one way or another. I think it would be much better to work as a team where I can ask for help from my team member and will increase the quality of the work. Hence, it will be a better performance for the company.
